Other Green-Energy ETFs In-Play

While ... and ... will directly compete with ... and ... , there are other green energy ETFs that will indirectly overlap with Those include ... Invesco Global Clean Energy ETF (NYSEARCA:PBD).

However, all of those are currently in the red year to date, with ... -18.84%, and PBD -15.54%.

In fact, the green-energy market has been one of the worst-performing segments in the overall energy space so far in 2021 due largely to being overbought on the backend of 2020 and early 2021
